“Symposium” means the IDLS2022 event.

“Event Organiser” means the company who are administering IDLS2022 on behalf of International Data Links Society, being Dot-The-Eye Ltd.

COVID-19

Following the lifting of all Government restrictions in relation to COVID-19, there will be no specific measures put in place at this year’s Symposium. However, we would still encourage all attendees to maintain best practise in regard to hygiene wherever possible, for example by frequently washing and/or sanitising hands throughout the event, capturing any coughs or sneezes in a tissue and disposing of them, and maintaining an appropriate social distance from other attendees where it is possible to do so.

If there is a resurgence of COVID-19 that results in the introduction of new guidelines by the Canadian Government, then the Symposium will fall in line with this updated guidance which may add new restrictions on event attendees.

Recording Consent

This is a Symposium with networking for which video recording and photography are necessary, including access to the presentations and other activities and for distribution. Video recording is also necessary for those who are unable to attend and can only participate by viewing a recording of the event at a later date. In addition, video and sound recording and still photography, including but not limited to crowd shots, group videos and photographs and video and still photograph, of Attendee’s, Speaker’s, Exhibitor’s and Sponsor’s are essential to the activities of the Speaker’s, Sponsor’s and Exhibitor’s and may be a condition of their participation.

Furthermore, a documentary film production “Timber Sweet” will be filming portions of the Symposium for inclusion in the film. The below considerations apply to video and audio content captured by the “Timber Sweet” production crew as well.

You agree and consent that your likeness may be captured in still photo, video, digital photography and other means and may be used across our programmes and applications and on print literature at our events. By attending you grant International Data Links Society, the Event Organiser and AirWing Films/Timber Sweet The Movie explicit permissions, to use your name and likeness in photographs, video and/or digital and hard copy recordings, broadcasts and/or image preservation in digital or paper-based reproductions, in any and all of their applications, sites and publications, without payment or any other consideration, and explicitly waive any and all royalties and indemnify International Data Links Society, the Event Organiser and AirWing Films/Timber Sweet The Movie from any and all liability under any theory of law or equity related to use and/or dissemination of your name/likeness and/or image.
